Johnson, Washington's Star Hurler, Reported to Be Married, Denies, Report.

From Cambridge comes the news that walter Johnson, Washington's mighty twirler, is to sign in a new league—the matrimonial. Miss Anna Bernadine Scully, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Scully, will be his new manager, according to the messages from the qualnt suburb of Boston, says the Washington Times Washington Times.

Miss Scully is a real fan, and as such she couldn't help loving the great big pitcher of the Nationals.

She declares the wedding will take place within two weeks, and that Walter will have a vacation of two weeks after finishing the Red Sox-Washington series next week.

Johnson Denics.
Philadelphia, April 26.—Walter Johnson, who is here with the Washington team and was scheduled to pitch to-day's game with the Athletics, said in answer to a question that it is ab-solutely untrue that he is to marry Miss Scully, of Cambridge, Mass. He knows her, he said, but the acquaint-ance is slight.

As a result of the week's play only one man lost his place on the class teams in golf. Joel Perrin defeated H. W. Hazard in a well-played game, and took his position on the first team. The second and third teams remain the same. A number of matches were played, but in every other case the challenger was defeated.

Those standing last on the team received as many as four challenges for the first week. It is likely that there will be changes in the make-up of the teams this week, as competition is so sharp. On Saturday, May 3, the men will qualify for the May handicap site of the for the following Saturday, and all dihers will be dropped. On successive Saturdays the number will be reduced to eight, then four. The man having the lowest handicap score of the final four will win the cup for the month. Negotiations have been under way

Negotiations have been under way for some time, but an agreement was only reached a couple of days ago, and Hegarty amounced to a few intimate friends on the Hilltop to-night. In selecting the former Georgetown leader the Aggiea will have the services of a thorough student of the sport and one who will unquestionably put heart and soul in his work. Hegarty is one of the most capable players that has ever worn the Blue and Gray, and his prowess in the last three seasons has been due to knowledge of the sport, as well as to his physical fitness. He has been a member of the team since the fall of 1910, when he entered the local institution, coming here from Holy institution, coming here from Holy Cross. For two seasons he played at end and was generally conceded to be one of the best flankers in the South Atlantic section.

Last year he was elected captain and shifted to tackle, where he played the rame aggressive game. His work was a feature in the last three clashes with the University of Virginia, all of which have been decided in favor of Georgetown,
